

2002 HIGHER SCHOOL CERTIFICATE EXAMINATION

Biology

Section I – Part B (continued)

	Marks
Question 25 (4 marks)
(a) Define the concept of punctuated equilibrium in evolution.	1
Time will the plants and animal have involved and change.
(b) How does punctuated equilibrium differ from the process proposed by Darwin?	3
Darwin theory of the survival of the fittest fitness, well be change the way of the survival of animals in there environments, ecosystem, the web of life how animal eat one another, learn that's the way not over populating. Web life show that animal feed one another to survive in what what ever the environment that they are. Genes of dominant. with as human species it make it even harder to survive.	