

Text one (cartoon)

A. (i) The father changes by acknowledging that the fact of spending a couple of hours with his son in the snow

A. (i) The father changes by acknowledging that that his neglecting his son by working too much. He changes by ~~at new~~ stopping his work for a few hours by spending time with him. The father see the importance in life by making his son happy and the out come his even more happier..

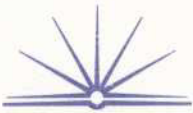

ii) ~~The~~ The two usual features are :

facial expression on his face seeing that he wants to change and getting up and leaving meaning he's acknowledge the change by making it.

Text two (speech)

B. The speaker represents her usual of change by acknowledging the fact that the society of Australia has been through many changes to get to where they are to day, she quotes 'if not all, change is for the better.' Some of the changes ~~at~~ which she speaks about are the fact that the youth ~~are~~ pursue change that make individuals free and able to pursue their hopes and dreams, what ever circumstance. The fact the change is cruel and the changes of the work force. This young woman ~~net~~ shows an understanding of change through the people we are today and the outcome of change, has been a positive one, especially for <sup>her</sup> elected federal parliament at a young age.

Text three

~~The changes of the children of the school.~~

The changes in the children is a whole different environment is waiting for them.

The children change by no longer being primary student but high school student. Their taking the step up to higher level of growth and development.

Text 1 2 3

d. it demonstrates the fact in which the children are experiencing ~~the fact~~ ~~of change~~ growth and development.
Their taking the next step in the life of acknowledging the fact that ~~the~~ ~~growth~~ by growing and up you development a wide view of knowledge which take to higher point in their life.