

The journey is presented in the novel Briar Rose by using Becca in the 3 parts of the story which are Home, Castle and Home.

~~The~~ In the novel we can see that it's got 3 parts ~~is~~ which is present and past. It starts with past where Gemma is telling the story of sleeping Beauty to Becca and her sisters and then we go to present and find out that Gemma is ~~in~~ in the nursing home and she is sick and that Becca is 20 years old, after Gemma dies when they find her box Becca finds out that she looks exactly the same as Gemma did when she was 20. Because of the things ~~she~~ Becca finds in the box and the promise that she made to Gemma which was to go and find the castle she decides to go and find the truth about Gemma's past. At first she looks at the ~~the~~ government records and she finds out that she should go to Oswego and she does and after searching everywhere she finds out that Gemma escaped from a termination camp with ~~to~~ a few other people and she was dying on the way out but she was saved by one of the men who was giving her oxygen, since then every one ~~was~~ called her Keshenshika (princess).

After finding out every thing about gemma becca came home and lived her life like gemma telling sleeping beauty to ~~be~~ the kids in her family.
