

Text 1 Cartoon Section II

(a) i) In the cartoon the father is working and his son come and asks to play but the father say that he has to much work to do so the boy goes of sad the father has a look out side, so the father goes out side to play with his son. in the snow and builds a snowman. after that the son comes in and gives his dad a kiss.

ii) 1. the father gets bored with the paper work and has a look out the window and fines that the boy is having fun.

2. so the father gets of his chair and goes outside to play in the snow with his son and he help the boy to build a snow man.

Text two.

b) The speaker represents her vision of change is now she rise as the youngest women ever elected to a federal parliament and come across a diversity of faces young people, old people, different ages, men and women.

as she could talk about the youth of this country that we want to pursue change that make individuals free and able to pursue their hopes and dreams or whatever their circumstances

Text three

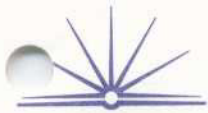

The changes in the children are represented in the text is that they will be going to highschool. Big time teenagers growing up. Growing tall. Growing smarter and they will be doing different things making choices and most of them will be turning twelve years old.

Text one, two and three.

d) the three texts demonstrate connection between youth and change.

Such as in text 1 how the father was busy but stopped and played with his son in the snow.

In text 2 it shows how many people change from young and then turning old and how our lives have change from legislation is greatly affecting destinies. how it has all changed for the better and in Text 3. how primary school kids change they will be going to highschool and now they are big time teenagers growing up, growing tall growing smarter they will be doing different things and making choices.

the three text is a connection on how people make changes throughout their lives.