

My Area of ~~Study~~ study was changing perspective our prescribed texts were Peter Skrzynecki's Immigrants Chronicle in these poems ~~by~~ Skrzynecki demonstrate how all changes have consequences they were fleeing from a war torn country so they came to "the land of the free" as a consequence of this was they were put in an immigrant camp, so that ~~for~~ they escaped a war torn country and they ended up ~~cocked~~ up anyway but they ended up getting a start in Australia and there all they needed.

Another text ~~which~~ which demonstrates the consequences of change is the film The Wog Boy where the main character is Greek and as a young boy was picked on because of this but he decided not to change and became an ambassador for all "wogs" which had consequences such as he was laughed at a lot and called a doll bludge but he managed to change the minds of many people and convince them that deep down he was a decent person.
