

Animal Farm is a story about a rebellion, to me as a farmer I didn't do a very good job, alot of the others thought that I was pathetic, because I use to drink hoaps as a character it is unequal cause I didn't take good care of my responsibilities, which one of them it was my manor farm, ~~at the~~ But the animals feared him, his neighbours treated him with disdain, especially because he use to sit in his taproom all day feeling sorry for himself. ¶

The story opens with the pigs, some of the animals were very clever - some of the animals didn't care about no one.

Snowball is one of the animals he had the most interest in the farm than any other animal he wanted other animals to enjoy the freedom they've had on manor farm, that is not longer called manor farm it is called "Animal Farm".

A good feature of Snowball is when he did the battle in the cowshed that showed that Snowball has a good leadership and personal courage. Another funny animal was Benjamin he never takes part in any issues, when Ben is asked something about an issue he always ~~gok~~ replies by: "has anyone seen a dead donkey" that does not mean that he has no opinion.

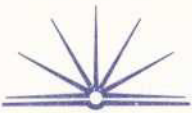

~~rather than that.~~

The animals decided to take good care of themselves so they wanted to make some rules that they wanted to follow.

This is a list of seven commandments.

The animals decided to obey ever after, but later on ~~the~~ some of the commandments gets broken or atleast twisted a little.

1. Whatever is upon 2 legs is an enemy
2. Whatever is upon 4 legs is a friend
3. No animal shall sleep on a bed
4. NO animals shall drink alcohol.

5. NO Animal shall Kill any other animal

6. NO Animals shall wear clothes.

7. All animals are equal

There're the commandments that they decided to obey.

One day clover asked Benjamin to read the Fifth commandment so Ben refused muriel came and read it for him

"NO Animals shall Kill any other animal with cause" the last two words slipped out, so they thought that they had the right to Kill the traitors that leagued snowball.

Also another commandment that was changed around was commandment

NO 3 "NO Animal shall sleep on a bed with sheets", Because they thought that human sleep on beds with sheets, so they'll sleep on beds with no sheets.

Another commandment was "NO Animal shall drink alcohol * with excess"

Hardly any of the animals could read the commandments, Muriel was the cleverest so could read all the commandments and the last commandment that was ~~broken~~ ^{changed} "All animals are equal, but other animals are more equal." So later on a lot of the animals were left on the farm so they had to welcome the new toasts. And the farm's name was changed to "Manor Farm" again. But I think that if I did my job very well as a farmer nothing of that would've happened, so this is a lesson for you all of you on how to be good farmers at the Red Lion.
