

Question 1

- (a) The difference one that the ~~teacher~~ student-teacher relationships are less formal, the uniforms are more casual than the strict formality of ours and no one seems stressed.
- (b) "This" refers to wander for one night on the streets for fun, and being stopped and asked by the police every single weekend.
- (c) The writer uses a direct quotation because Kent was what the storyteller <sup>said.</sup> ~~says.~~
- (d) The new perspective the girls developed are that they've learnt about about people and a part of Australia we once knew little about, ~~only through personal experience.~~ <sup>only through personal</sup> experience. And they* felt sorry for the ~~#~~ Aborigines in the way they are living and the way they are being treated.
- (e) on the diary entries Day 7, the girl was lead by ~~his~~ her host family to the local foot ball game and the Aboriginal reserves, and she saw the most beautiful place ~~she'd~~ ever seen, and saw many positive things. <sup>The language features were</sup> more casual than Day 23. But in contrast of ~~On~~ Day 23 she was in a way of reflections that she've seen and been told ~~of~~ of stories of suicide, homelessness, depression, hunger and prominently, which makes her seem to see so many negative ~~things~~ <sup>things</sup> and they really disturbed her. The language features were more formal, and has more facts. she puts exclamation at the end of her sentence to show her anger.

She realised there are many different dimensions and a change in perspectives to an issue.