

Start here for Question Number: 21

b) The information technology required is collecting the information, then you need to organize it. ~~with~~ The information technology required is digital imaging, speeding technology and Red light camera technology

c) They need to make sure they have all the information and technology required for the charge so that it will work and no faults occur.

d) A social and ethical issue is, that if someone is next to someone speeding they might catch the wrong person and they could be fined. and they don't have proof of the other person speeding or going through the red light