

Question 23.

(6) As young people are pressured into maturing or taking on responsibilities, most young people suffer from depression or any other illness such as self-harm.

The diverse nature of young peoples lives affects their health status, so that

They ~~is~~ could become stressed ~~by~~ being off school, or pressured into ~~is~~ getting employment, or continuing school till the end of year 12. This involves a total of pressure, depression ~~may~~ could arise.