

(c) Supportive networks for these young Australians enhance their personal skills. These supportive networks include youth centres, education on disease, health, illness and injury, motivation to stay in schools, easy access to health care facilities.

Health promotion to stop smoking and ~~the~~ knowledge of what peer-pressure is.

Young Australians should also be aware and educated on causes of illness, smoking and drug abuse, sexuality, and causes of injury.