(a) Iron deficiency and bone density can import female participation in sport by the offects on the bones ligarents and tendor. There deficences con cauce weakness within the body that cauce reconsiction and difficulty in participation. Good un or orestoll and touch football are thoroughly ourise and require alot of movement which Could become difficult when the vant of the body have trouble actively moving in of the body have trouble actively making in povition or certain more action.
(ii) Sports medicine address she medical anditions of dilaren and young attretes conditions of dilaren and young athletes by addrewing the viver peroted to theve and thous of diloren and young athletes by addrewing the vives political to there groups of people. Epilepuy altrono and dicheles are the three diseases that one
and thous of diloren and young athletes by addrewing the vives political to there groups of people. Epilepuy altrono and dicheles are the three diseases that one
conditions of children and young ashietes by addressing the source protect to sheve groups of people. Epilepsy ashma and diabetes are the three diseases that one children amongst young and young addition. These conditions of children and young oshietes by addressing the source protect to sheve groups of people. Epilepuy astrono and diabetes are the three diseases that are amongst young and young assists. These invest are addressed through treatment conditions of children and young athletes by addrewing the issues related to these groups of people. Epilepsy althrow and disbetter are the three diseases that are amongst young and young about. These increases are observed through treatment of these conditions in regards to ensuring conditions of children and young athletes by addressing the source poloted to these groups of people. Epilepsy although and one children and young allthough the one children and young about. These inview are addressed through treatment of these conditions in regards to ensuring rote of mortality decrease. Treatment and conditions of deloren and young officers by oddrewing the issues protect to these groups of people. Epilepuy altimo and disbetes are the three diseases that are amongst young and young assites. These issues are oddressed through treatment of these conditions in regards to ensuring rote of mortality decrease. Treatment and full time services are available for chieve conditions of children and young athletes by addressing the source poloted to these groups of people. Epilepsy although and one children and young allthough the one children and young about. These inview are addressed through treatment of these conditions in regards to ensuring rote of mortality decrease. Treatment and

Specky medicine con addrewy orea	a need Sports medicine con address oreas for dildren by ousewing inc	need for authoria epilepuy and diabeter.
Freched omongus children so	nd Brodan and access to vervices.
Additional writing space on back page.	