Japan women used to lack power & authority as men were the superior race. ~~because~~ ~~that~~ In the 1947 civil code Japanese women had no individualism and ~~was~~ had a set future for them, which was to marry young, have children, not to work and to clean & cook for their husbands. Now women are putting off marriage and divorce rates have increased. Which also leads to the birth rate declining. More women are in high paid jobs and more are being better educated. With some women ~~of~~ having tertiary ~~level~~ education now. Women are now becoming more equal to men through power & authority.
