

Technology, discrimination & socio economic status effect access to socially valued resources in that such members such as Aborigines can ~~not~~ do not have technological appliances to elevate their position in society, discrimination through government policies such as Assimilation & Protection resulted in inhibit discrimination & stereotyping in society of Aborigine persons as druggies & alcoholics. Socio economic status in that most Aborigines are living in relative poverty so they can not access resource that require

BOARD OF STUDIES
NEW SOUTH WALES

money or they do not have money ~~for~~ for transportation to access these resources.