The impact of the 'Vietnam War' or as the Vietnamese call it, 'the American War' has continued on to the present day. Rather than speaking Vietnamese mainly, some people speak in American slang. In addition to this, the impact of globalising factors, such as ~~etc~~ Coca Cola, ~~and~~ foreign investment and trade, have altered the traditional lifestyles of the people. Rather than staying in the country and working ~~for more~~ of the land to make money, globalisation and the tourist dollar ~~has~~ ^{have} brought villagers to the city in order to make more money. This has resulted in the loss of some aspects of traditional, cultural life styles with the population move to the cities.
