

Start here.

a.) Islam follows the basic idea of there only being one god. This god is Allah and anyone who goes by this must obey the expectations of this belief.

There are 5 commandments involving prayer, pilgrimage, daily confessions, obedience of Allah.

b.) Globalisation has allowed Islam to connect to other countries using advanced technology. It has changed the gender roles and allowed women to advance their skills by conducting further education.

Globalisation has led to the Westernisation of this belief system and encouraged other individuals around the globe, to further their education on the understanding of their culture. Globalisation has allowed Islam to modernise their country by using advanced technology, new music, different clothing fashions and other trends. It has allowed Islam to conduct itself in trade and exports. Globalisation has also allowed continuity of the Islamic culture. ~~through Islam~~ People are now more aware of the desire for peace and prosperity in Islam because of Globalisation. We are well aware this is not a country of war.

Additional writing space on back page.