Start here. (c) Islamic has been portraid as the "torrest". In todays society people that are muslems often have a bad relationship through peace within the society. Ever since the 9/11 attact in America, Islamic people have been challenged by the way the media portays them to be.

Even though theres peace in the world. It will not stop conflicts and changers. The media has many ways into mind challenging the society and also those who are truely Islamic.

From having countries that are mostly religious (Islamic) in their beliefs often sets an easier target to the media to recongise the negative and disadavatage obsticles and mention it to the world.
