

- (a) Aisha Bint - She has contributed to ~~the~~ ~~the~~ Islam in her own ways, Aisha has given many women hope and represented as a strong leader. She has also contributed to the Hadith as she is one of many ~~the~~ close people to Muhammad. Aisha given many lectures becoming a lecturer herself.
- (b) Aisha Has given much observation and informed many of her journeys with Muhammad though there is times where she had to prove herself. Aisha being a young woman had given a effect on Islam, she has told many of her days as a child ~~and~~ with Muhammad, and also having the courage to stand up and prove herself. Aisha is known as a strong ~~is~~ leader to the people, Muhammad himself having a vision when in doubt. She has given Islam strength and compassion also having given lectures and contributing to the Hadith she has shown that women are as equal as men. Her contributions gives more insight to the various stages in the life of Aisha and Muhammad.

(c) Hajj - is a ~~the~~ journey to mecca though it does start with the takbir the journey there and the removal of various garments from there is mecca where there is a reciting of several texts which expressed their journey and life. after the reciting the people drink from the zamzam this is known to give purity getting rid of ~~demons~~ demons and giving oneself more knowledge. Then the people travel and go to the area where the stoning of ~~the~~ satan takes place, this process gets rid of evil and all the sins are cast away. This practice has given many Islamic individuals a journey to express their belief and purify themselves on their journey to mecca. Hajj is one of the five pillars and is an ~~an~~ ultimate part of the umma.