

1a) Robert Rauschenberg's relationships is that how the world is challenging, from political events to man in the moon. His printing skills are very effective. He used famous people like United states president John Kennedy, and also a famous picture like the man landing in moon, to put in his work and other photographs, and we can see that the ink is spilt on top and blurred out. And he changed Kennedy's tie in ~~blue~~ green.