

1 a) By looking these artworks I believe Robert Rauschenberg is commenting on America. The political side & a technological view of America today. They are all life size artworks & I believe he tries to put himself in the picture. He uses oil & silkscreened ink. There is no actual painting involved, it is more like splashed or brushed on oil. I don't totally understand these artworks but this is my interpretation of Robert Rauschenberg's artworks.