

Latin

Question 1

a) Of all those who are here, which I am able to see, I alone am the one who is defending him against this new wickedness, that the defender himself is with ... Those who are here with the result that they should be nearby, because the lead official life, around here remain silent, who's lives are in danger. What am I? Am I the most audacious of those who are here? No. Am I of the rest seeking to do my duty? I am not undertaking this for which praise I would receive, with the result that others might think more of me.