a) All these men, whom you see to be present, in this unprecedented of ~~the~~ ~~so~~ ~~accu~~ charge of crime think that this in this case of an unprecedented crime ought to be defended, but they themselves do not ~~they~~ dare to defend it because of the times in which we live.

And so it is that they are present moreover, because they are bound by ties - of - hospitality, yet they remain silent because they live ~~with~~ in danger.

What then? Am I the most daring ~~of~~ out of everyone? No.

Or am I so much more dutiful than the rest? I am not so desirous even of that praise that I want it snatched from others.
