

Q4

(a) And from a distance (he cried) "O wretched citizens, what great insanity is this?

Do you believe the enemy has left? Or do you think that any gift of the Greeks lacks treachery?

Is this what Ulysses is known for? Either the Greeks are shut up hidden in this wood, or this machine has been made against our walls, about to look into our homes and about to come into the city from above, or else some trick lies hidden; Do not trust the horse, Trojans..."
