

b) (1) Cicero might be ~~suspecting~~ expecting to experience "invidiam" as Catiline wasn't alone in his efforts to remove Cicero. Catiline's supporters, the conspirators would stay around after Catiline had gone to exile and be more of a problem to Cicero than Catiline himself.

(ii) Throughout the entirety of his speech against Catiline, Cicero used ~~three~~^{two} main methods of getting what he wanted. He used his rhetorical style to persuade the senate and he depicted the character of Catiline in a bad light. In this extract, Cicero has used negative words in conjunction with the character of Catiline. "Neque ... Catilina...". There is also only one direct mention of Catiline however from the extract, we are led to see a very negative image of Catiline.
