

4.

a) All hope for the Dardanels began at once, they always help Polonides in war. Wickedness came from Tydidias but for the inventor of crime Ulysses, he advanced to the fatal sacred temple of Polonides to guard the highest murder, to corrupt the bond of sacred effigi was as cruel as ~~trying~~^{daring} to break a divine virgin.

(b) wherefore horror in the mind, as soon as they fell silent themselves terrified.

~~In the house, if brave men, raised up brave men: enter Dana and ~~was~~ they were holding all the buildings Ensnared with the highest ignition, they engulfed in flames, with heat. Priam proceed.~~

In the house, they had raised up the brave men and they were holding all the Dana in the building. Ensnared with the highest ignition, they had engulfed in flames, filled with heat. Priam proceeded to revise the seating & the arch; and now Jupiter guarded the gate of madness and they approached the bed of of Phoenix and tired Ulysses. Then Troy erupted in a wave of burning, the walls of the gods.

Young boys and girls stood around their mothers in long rows.