

Start here.

a) paratum

b) ~~cives, vestra sacros~~ furta, flagitia

c) equites Romanos, publicis auctoritatibus

d) Now I ~~learned that~~ a very brave man learnt of this. He understood that he wanted me to prepare orders for me as he arrived in court, so that no such a thing in gold vests, but in the eyes of all, had set up a theft that was a shameful crime. I saw the testimonies of many brave senators; I saw many Roman knights who often governed those people and citizens, who had made injustice and signs. For I saw so many sick/serious but very friendly citizen and legates coming together with a public document.

Additional writing space on back page.