

Start here.

a) iudicium

b) ~~factus~~ ~~facto~~, ~~factus~~ oculis,c) "videt multos equites Romanos frequentes praeterea cives atque socios"
"cum publicis auctoritatibus convenisse"

d) Now this man will know the most accurate and the most believable thing.

He informed me to go and ~~be prepared~~~~and~~ instruct the judges, ^{to be prepared} so that you do not wish to miss anything, but in all eyes, I myself ^{have} ~~had~~ been bewitchedby the ^{trick} ~~trick~~ and shameful act.

He saw many senators who you ~~examined~~ examined _____; he saw many Roman horses which you give to the praetors of citizens and society, these are the things he saw. ^{For} the saw the legions come together with public authority ~~to the praetors~~ which you took away from the whole of most friendly citizens.

Additional writing space on back page.