

Start here.

Q 1 a) This was the truth, if ~~the~~ at once the pirate captain himself was executed, Verres would not have received any money, if the false pirate captain died or escaped, it would not have been difficult for Verres to substitute another man in the substitute's place. I have said more than I wanted to about this pirate captain, but, however, I have passed over the most certain points on ^{Verres'} ~~the~~ ~~time~~ of ~~Verres~~.

b) This Gaius, who you say was a sudden spy, I will show that he was thrown into the ^{stone} quarries at Syracuse by you, not only out of letters from the Syracusans, so that you might be able to say that I found and picked another Gaius, so that I might ^{be able to} say that ~~he~~ ^{that Gaius} was our man, but I will give witnesses for your testimony, who ^{will} ~~see~~ say that this Gaius was thrown into the stone quarries of Syracuse by you.

⇒

Additional writing space on back page.