

Start here.

a) Different government authorities have different responsibilities as they have responsibilities to implement laws to the automotive industry as for example how workshops aren't allowed to wash oil into storm drain as this is a way to keep environmentally responsible.

Some authorities are responsible for the environment, some are for safety and also the way the industry works.