

Start here.

22 a. When working with metal, eye protection should always be worn because of the little shavings that can fly up when drilling, filing or cutting. When using a drill press, hair should be kept out of the way because if it gets caught in the chuck, it will hurt a lot. When using a grinder, eye protection should always be worn along with hearing protection.